Dear Brother or Sister:

You have been assigned to serve on the Pure Worship Convention program as a convention interpreter at the following location:

Auckland
Eden Park

The main talk will be given in English, and you are being assigned to interpret the talk into Tagalog.

Day's theme: "It is Jehovah your God you must worship"—Matthew 4:10

Subject: Sino Ba Talaga ang Namamahala sa Mundo?

Day: Fri Jan 9, 2026

Time: 11:45

Part: 6

Please acknowledge receipt and acceptance of this assignment by sending the confirmation form to the chairman as soon as possible. The chairman in turn will pass onto you the contact details of the brother assigned the main talk.

Chairman:
Vinuya, Israel Mendoza

If you are unable to care for this assignment for some reason, please notify the Program Desk in the Service Department IMMEDIATELY by replying to the assignment message from your personal jw.org inbox. You will be advised as to what you should do with the material you have received.

Please read and follow carefully all the instructions supplied.

Usually a word-for-word translation fails to convey the speaker's thoughts faithfully. Interpreting requires comprehension of thoughts. Thus, interpreters should concentrate on what is being said from the platform and endeavour to convey such thoughts clearly, accurately, and completely while keeping up with the speaker. Those assigned should be able to communicate the emphasis, intensity, and emotion of the speaker, while not calling undue attention to themselves.—Rom. 12:3; 1 Cor. 12:28-31.

Dress and Grooming: Proper dress and grooming will contribute much to the dignity of the occasion. As Christians we want to adorn ourselves "with modesty and soundness of mind." (1 Tim. 2:9) This involves considering the feelings and attitudes of others and not insisting on one's personal preference. It also means avoiding hairstyles or clothing that others may view as extreme or trendy. It is wise to lean toward being conservative in this setting.

Check-in Time: Be sure to report to designated area for interpretation: (1) the first day of the convention, (2) at least 30 minutes before the program begins on the day of your assignment, and (3) at least 30 minutes before you are to appear on the program. If for some reason you will not be attending the first day of the convention but plan to deliver your part on the assigned day, please inform the brother in charge well in advance. After you finish your part, you may be asked to return to the check-in area, as the brothers there may have some observations for you.

May Jehovah's rich blessing be with you as you prepare for this privilege to his praise and to the benefit of his people.

Your brothers,

Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses (Australasia)
