

Extemporaneous Guide — Talk No. 4

“He Will Not Quarrel” — 17 minutes

One sentence: Jesus fulfilled Isaiah’s prophecy by exercising justice with quiet humility and tender compassion; we imitate him by directing attention to Jehovah, reasoning peacefully, and caring for people.

Main memory path: SEE → READ → JUSTICE → QUIET → TENDER → JEHOVAH → REASON → CARE → HANDOFF

Delivery rule: Do not memorise every sentence. Know the path, the exact video and reading cues, the section endings, and the final handoff.

WHAT WAS PROPHESED? — 3:00

SEE — Authority under control

- Link to symposium: quality easy to overlook because it is quiet.
- Messiah establishes justice without making himself centre.
- Set Video 1 question: What authority did Jesus have, and how did he use it?

Outline 0:46; actual file 0:50. Allow the final frame to settle.

- Key line: “That was power under perfect control.”

READ — Isaiah’s balance

READ ISAIAH 42:1-4.

- Justice to nations.
- Not shout / crush damaged reed / extinguish weak flame.
- Key line: “True justice in Messiah’s hands: faithful, quiet, compassionate.”
- Bridge: How was every part fulfilled?

HOW WAS THE PROPHECY FULFILLED? — 8:00

JUSTICE — Person, not merely a case

- Matthew 12:15-18 links prophecy to Jesus.
- Leaders’ legalism could judge instead of help.
- Jesus’ justice = compassion + mercy for poor, ill, discouraged.
- Key contrast: “Where legalism saw a case, Jesus saw a person.”

QUIET — No personal publicity

- Matthew 12:19: no self-promotion or sensation.
- Cures often followed by instruction not to advertise.
- Set Video 2: instruction + consequence when ignored.

VIDEO 2 — 04-CO-v26_E_042

Outline 0:52; actual file 0:56.

- Mark 1:40-44: tell no one; follow Law arrangement.
- Publicity forced Jesus into isolated places.
- Bethzatha, John 5:2-13: healed man did not even know who Jesus was.
- Mark 3:11, 12 note: demons were rebels; Jesus rejected their witness.
- Key thought: Jehovah’s way and Jehovah’s time.

TENDER — Bruised reed / smouldering wick

- Matthew 12:20, 21.
- Bent by hardship / almost lost hope.
- Jesus did not treat fragile people as disposable.
- Balance:
 - would not amplify own name;
 - would not overlook another's quiet pain.
- Section landing: justice without quarrelling; hope without spectacle; strength without crushing.

WHAT CAN WE LEARN FROM THE MESSIAH? — 6:00

JEHOVAH — Direct the spotlight correctly

- Matthew 6:2, 5: not like attention-seeking hypocrites.
- Matthew 9:2-8: crowd glorified God.
- John 7:16-18: teaching from the One who sent him.
- Use Bible evidence; help listener conclude.
- Light line: "If they remember our illustration but forget the scripture, the spotlight landed wrong."

REASON — No scorecard

- 2 Timothy 2:24 study note: no verbal fighting/contentious debate.
- Light line: "A conversation is not a contest with a scorecard."
- Mildness / thoughtful question / Bible evidence.

CARE — Give the spark air

- Mark 1:41: pity before help.
- Love People, lesson 3: sense our care → more likely to listen.
- Listen / understand / speak kindly / offer help.
- Reuse controlling image:

- bruised reed = bent by life;
- smouldering wick = weak spark of interest;
- pressure could extinguish; kindness gives air.
- Matthew 5:3: help person express spiritual need.

LANDING + HANDOFF

- Final three: Give Jehovah the attention; people the evidence; discouraged tender care.

Exact handoff: Brother _____ will now present the final part of this symposium, entitled “Without an Illustration He Would Not Speak.”

Timing control

Clock	Be here	If running long
0:35	Start Video 1	Shorten opening to two sentences
1:35	Begin Isaiah reading	Keep only “power under control” recap
3:00	Start fulfilment	Do not borrow from application
5:05	Start Video 2	Compress Bethzatha to one sentence
7:25	Begin bruised reed / wick	Retain this controlling image
11:00	Start lessons	Keep all three applications; trim examples
15:55	Begin final summary	Use exact three-part landing
16:45	Handoff	Do not add a second conclusion

If short: Pause after Isaiah; expand “person, not case”; make eye contact during the three final applications.

If long: Remove the extra sentence after each supporting citation—never rush Isaiah 42:1-4, videos, or handoff.
