

SEPTEMBER 28–OCTOBER 4, 2026

20

SONG 79 Teach Them to Stand Firm

Help Others Come to Know Jehovah

“This means everlasting life, their coming to know you, the only true God.”—JOHN 17:3.

FOCUS

How to help your Bible students get to know Jehovah, including his

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

Accept

Decline

Customize

² God's will is for "all sorts of people" to "be saved and come to an accurate knowledge of truth." (Read 1 Timothy 2:3, 4.) Jehovah wants people to come to know him and his purposes as fully as possible. (Jer. 9:24) That means taking in accurate knowledge. The original-language word translated "accurate knowledge" means not merely a collection of facts that someone learns but knowledge that "has its full effect on the person," as one Bible scholar said. When a Bible student comes to know Jehovah, that knowledge affects the way he lives. And it opens to him the prospect of "everlasting life."—John 17:3.

3. What will we discuss in this article?

³ Jehovah has given us the privilege of helping others come to know him. In this article, we will discuss the following questions: Why do

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

student must come to know Jehovah in order to love him. We want our Bible student to dedicate himself—not to us, not to a set of teachings, not to an organization—but to Jehovah. Therefore, our primary objective when conducting a Bible study is to help our student come to know and love Jehovah.

5. What will love for Jehovah motivate your Bible student to do?

⁵ There is a connection between love and obedience. Once your Bible student comes to know and love Jehovah, he will be moved to obey him. Jesus said: “For the world to know that I love the Father, I am doing just as the Father has commanded me to do.” (John 14:31) Similarly, love for Jehovah—more than anything else—will motivate a Bible student to obey him and to stick to him.—1 John 5:3.

6. How will knowledge of Jehovah help your Bible student when making decisions?

Illustrate

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

heavenly Father helps him, he will be equipped to make good decisions in any circumstance.

7. How did knowledge of Jehovah help Joseph to make a good decision?

⁷ Knowledge of Jehovah helped Joseph when Potiphar's wife tried to seduce him. From childhood, Joseph had no doubt heard about the accounts of Adam and Eve and of Abraham and Sarah. (Gen. 2:24; 20:3, 6) Joseph could discern from those accounts how Jehovah views marriage and the gift of sexual relations. Joseph came to know Jehovah so well that he rejected the advances of Potiphar's wife and told her: "How could I commit this great badness and actually sin against God?" (Gen. 39:7-9) Joseph knew what was good and what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. He understood what would hurt his God. As a result, Joseph made the right decision. If we help our Bible students to get to know Jehovah well and to learn what he is like, they too will

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

“Questions That Help Us Teach.”) So use these questions to help your student come to know Him.

Questions That Help Us Teach

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

“How do you think Jehovah would feel about our marrying someone who does not love Him?” (lesson 42)

“How great is Jehovah’s forgiveness?” (lesson 56)

“How does the way Jehovah deals with sinners show that he is reasonable, merciful, and loving?” (lesson 57)

9-10. (a) What will help Bible students to get the most out of their Bible reading? (James 5:11) (b) Illustrate how a Bible account can reveal what pleases or what displeases Jehovah.

9 Early in our interactive Bible course, we encourage students to start a routine of Bible reading. * How can we help them to get the most out of their personal reading? We might suggest that each time they

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

does this tell me about what displeases Jehovah?’ (Dan. 6:4, 5, 24)

Finally, he can think about other qualities of Jehovah that are evident in the account.—Dan. 6:26, 27.

11. How can we help our student to see his Bible study as a gift from Jehovah?

11 We are happy when our student appreciates the benefits he receives from his Bible study. However, we should help him to see that the Source of these benefits is Jehovah, the Grand Instructor. (Isa. 30:20, 21) Our student may thank us for what he is learning and perhaps even praise us for the way we teach. While these sincere expressions of gratitude are not wrong, we should try to redirect such praise and gratitude to Jehovah.

HELP HIM PUT HIS KNOWLEDGE TO WORK

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

13 You can encourage your student to reflect on what he has learned about Jehovah. How precious is life to Jehovah? (2 Pet. 3:9) How far has he gone to save us—even though we are sinners? (Eph. 2:4, 5) Does Jehovah punish people who do not deserve it? On the other hand, does he allow anyone who deserves punishment to escape it? (Ex. 34:6, 7) Sometimes, a Bible account does not provide the details that would make Jehovah’s decision more understandable to us. However, we do not need those details. We know our God, and we are convinced that our God always does what is right.

24

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

but he finds it hard to get along with someone in the congregation. Perhaps he has been offended by that publisher. Encourage your student to consider how Jehovah views our brothers and sisters. What sacrifice has Jehovah made to show his love for them? (John 3:16) How important is our Christian unity to him? (Ps. 133:1) How does he feel when we strive to protect that unity? (2 Cor. 13:11) Help your student to see how pleased Jehovah will be when we focus on the positive qualities of others rather than on their faults.

15-16. (a) When facing a major decision, how can a Bible student imitate Jesus? (John 8:29) (b) How did Marianne help her student to make a good decision? (See also picture.)

15 Finally, you can help your Bible student to use his knowledge of Jehovah to make good decisions. You might first direct his attention to lesson 35 of the Enjoy Life Forever! book, entitled “How to Make Good

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

decision would make Jehovah feel. Would he be happy or sad? I also encouraged her to pray to Jehovah specifically about the situation and to observe how he would answer. She refused the job offer and soon found employment that allowed her to attend meetings.” Note that rather than tell the student what to do, Marianne helped her to meditate on what she already knew about Jehovah. As a result, this experience strengthened the student’s relationship not only with Marianne but also with Jehovah. Marianne says about her student: “She learned that Jehovah cares for us if we put his worship first.”

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

17 Our interactive Bible course covers many important teachings. Students study basic Bible doctrines—including the condition of the dead, the ransom, and the Kingdom. They also learn about organizational aspects—such as the meetings, the elder arrangement, and the role of the Governing Body. However, we want our students to do more than just learn facts. We want them to get to know Jehovah well.

18. What blessings are in store for those who come to know Jehovah?

18 What a privilege it is for us to teach others to come to know Jehovah! Even now, those who come to know and worship Jehovah are blessed with the happiest life possible today. (Ps. 25:12-15) In the future, all who “gain the knowledge of the one who is true,” Jehovah,

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.

- How can we teach a Bible student what Jehovah is like?

- How can we help a Bible student to put his knowledge of Jehovah to work?

SONG 84 Reaching Out

* The goal stated in lesson 05 of the Enjoy Life Forever! book is: “Begin reading the Bible regularly, using the chart ‘Get Started Reading the Bible.’”

PICTURE DESCRIPTION: A reenactment of Marianne’s Bible student refusing a job offer.

Privacy Settings

To provide you with the best possible experience, we use cookies and similar technologies. Some cookies are necessary to make our website work and cannot be refused. You can accept or decline the use of additional cookies, which we use only to improve your experience. None of this data will ever be sold or used for marketing. To learn more, read the Global Policy on Use of Cookies and Similar Technologies. You can customize your settings at any time by going to Privacy Settings.