TREASURES FROM GOD'S WORD

1. We Love Our Spiritual Paradise! (10 min.)

In the spiritual paradise, God's servants have abundant spiritual food (Isa 65:13; cl 275 ¶12, 14)

Our spiritual paradise helps us to cope with pain and distress (Isa 65:14-17; w24.04 22 ¶9-10)

The world has nothing that compares with the peace and safety we enjoy (Isa 65:25; w24.04 23 ¶13)

8. Are You Missing Out? (15 min.) Discussion.

Are you considering entering the full-time ministry? Do you ever worry that you might miss out on certain things in life if you do? Or have you ever wondered, ‘Why make sacrifices to do more if all of Jehovah’s worshippers will receive everlasting life?’ If so, remember that Jehovah “will not hold back anything good” from those who trust in him. (Ps 84:11, 12) It is only when we hold back from giving Jehovah our best that we truly miss out.

Jehovah’s blessings are not limited to the future. Play the VIDEO What Will You Do “for the Sake of the Good News”? Then ask the audience:

- What blessings have these young ones experienced as a result of making themselves available?

What if you do not have the circumstances to enter full-time service? Jehovah blesses those who give him their best. So continue to give him your best, knowing that he will “pour out on you a blessing until there is nothing lacking.”—Mal 3:10.

- Why are these qualities important?

TREASURES FROM GOD'S WORD

1. Learn From Judah's Spiritual Sickness

(10 min.)

The people of Judah were stubborn and rebellious (Jer 4:4, 14; w13 3/15 9-10 ¶8-9)

They were not interested in receiving Jehovah's diagnosis of their spiritual condition (Jer 5:31; jr 114 ¶2)

1. They Treated Jehovah's Temple With Contempt (10 min.)

Many Judeans imagined that the temple itself would protect them despite their wicked behavior (Jer 7:4, 8-10; jr 21 ¶12)

Their conduct dishonored Jehovah's name (Jer 7:11; it "Jehovah" ¶78)

Jehovah used Shiloh's example to illustrate what would happen to the temple (Jer 7:12-14; it "Shiloh" No. 2 ¶4)

1. How to “Run a Race Against Horses”

(10 min.)

As Jehovah's Witnesses, we expect to experience opposition, as Jeremiah did (Jer 11:21; w04 11/1 16 ¶12)

Contending with the more challenging trials ahead may be compared to ‘running a race against horses’ (Jer 12:5; w11 3/15 32 ¶19)

Cultivating brotherly love now will help us face difficulties during the great tribulation (Isa 26:20; w23.07 6-7 ¶15-16)

7. Disaster Preparedness—Expect the Unexpected (15 min.) Discussion.

To be handled by an elder. Include reminders from the branch office and the body of elders, if provided.

Disasters, including violent attacks, can occur anywhere and without warning. (Ec 9:11) Even if you live in an area that rarely experiences natural disasters, it is wise to expect the unexpected. (Pr 22:3) How can you prepare?

- When in public, be alert to your surroundings, and pay attention to the location of emergency exits, especially in crowded areas
- For natural disasters, prepare and maintain go bags* and emergency supplies for home. Have an evacuation plan and the contact information of your family and friends.—g17.5 4

Play the VIDEO Disaster Preparedness: Expect the Unexpected.

Then ask the audience:

- How did the brothers and sisters initially feel about disaster preparedness?
- What practical steps did they take to prepare?
- How did Jehovah bless their efforts to prepare for a disaster?
- What did they learn from their experience?

ASK YOURSELF, ‘What does my view of disaster preparedness say about my respect for Jehovah?’

GOAL: When in public places this week, ask yourself, ‘Where is the nearest emergency exit?’
